Registration and Payment Instructions:

To receive a registration form, please email itsadogsworldaudrey@gmail.com. One day preference to register in these classes will be given to current students. For new students, registrations will be accepted in the order they are received.

As our spring classes are held outdoors during a time when weather is unsettled, be prepared for us to cancel one or more of the classes due to heavy rain or active thunder storms. Each time we cancel a class, we will reduce the cost of the class by $15.00. A class you choose not to attend will have to be paid for. We will email each student if class is cancelled.
